

8th International Clinical Skills Conference, Prato Tuscany
Sunday 19th May – Wednesday 22nd May 2019

KEYNOTE SPEAKER – ASSISTANT PROFESSOR JIMMIE LEPPINK

Jimmie Leppink is a Senior Lecturer in Medical Education at Hull York Medical School, University of York. He has a background in Psychology (MSc), Forensics and Law (LLM), Methodology and Statistics (MSc), and Education (PhD). Together with two colleagues from Western Sydney University, he coauthored “Instructional design principles for high-stakes problem-solving environments”, which was recently published by Springer. His research focuses on the use of learning process and outcome measures, also known as learning analytics, to inform learning and assessment in Medical Education and the broader Higher Education. He has been an Editorial Board member of BMC Medical Education (since August 2016), Health Professions Education (since April 2018), Frontiers in Psychology/Education (since August 2018), Educational Psychology Review (October 2018-January 2019, as one of the Editors of a Special Issue), and Perspectives on Medical Education (January 2014-September 2018).